Getting a head start: the 2032 Olympic Movement through the preferred candidature bid involving Brisbane, Australia / Aaron Tham

Tham, Aaron
2022
The Olympic bidding process prior to 2024 was altered in 2019 to provide greater transparency and reduce unnecessary work related to the preparation for each bid, of which there can only be one host. This paper analyses the proces...

More information...

Winning the Olympic host city election: key success factors / Wolfgang Maennig, Christopher Vierhaus

Maennig, Wolfgang | Vierhaus, Christopher
2017
This article examines 147 variables' potential to discriminate successful from unsuccessful Olympic bids. Our stepwise, rank-ordered logistic regression model includes 10 determinants supporting the contention that economic, polit...

More information...

Every loser wins?: leveraging an Olympic bid / Tom Bason

Bason, Tom
Manchester Metropolitan University. Manchester - 2019
This research investigates the ways in which cities leverage Olympic bids for positive outcomes.

More information...

No one wants to host the Olympic Games...! really?: the history of the bid for the Olympic Games / Volker Kluge

Kluge, Volker
2019
The history of Olympic applications is, despite all low points, a story of success. Were it different, then 119 cities from 41 countries would not have been moved to apply to hold the Games.

More information...
Media effect on resident attitudes toward an Olympic bid / Qiulin Lu... [et al.]
Lu, Qiulin
2019
News media helps individuals think about the impacts of hosting the Olympic Games, enabling them to clarify or construct their own opinions toward an Olympic bid. This study aims to unveil the rationale underlying such media influ...

Residents’ perceptions of mega sport event legacies and impacts : the case of the Hamburg 2024 Olympic bid / Anja Scheu, Holger Preuss
Scheu, Anja | Preuss, Holger
2018
The purpose of this study was to examine perceptions of local residents prior to the public referendum for the 2024 Hamburg Olympic bid and to assess their level of support for the bid. The representative survey conducted amongst ...

The bidding paradox : why politicians favor hosting mega sports events despite the bleak economic prospects / Michiel de Nooij, Marcel van den Berg
Nooij, Michiel de | Berg, Marcel van den
2018
Politicians generally favor hosting mega sports events despite the discouraging evidence of financial benefits or direct economic gain. This paradox is surveyed from two different perspectives. First, the authors weighed the merit...

Referenda on hosting the Olympics : what drives voter turnout ? / Tobias Streicher, Sascha L. Schmidt, Dominik Schreyer
Streicher, Tobias | Schmidt, Sascha L. | Schreyer, Dominik
2018
Public referenda have recently put an end to the ambitions of several cities to host the Olympic Games. The outcome of referenda depends on two major decisions: a content decision whether to support hosting the Olympics and a turn...
Planning to fail? : leveraging the Olympic bid / Tom Bason, Jonathan Grix

Bason, Tom | Grix, Jonathan
2017
In recent years, there has been a decline in the number of cities seeking to host the Olympic Games, with several cities withdrawing from the bid process following referenda. The debate around bidding have hinged on the costs and ... More information...

Jeux Olympiques & Paralympiques 2024 : d'une candidature gagnante à un accélérateur sociétal ? / Think Tank Sport et Citoyenneté

Think Tank Sport et Citoyenneté
Sport et Citoyenneté. Angers - 2018
Le 13 septembre dernier, Paris a été désignée par le CIO ville-hôte des Jeux Olympiques et Paralympiques (JOP) 2024 ; point d'orgue d'une intense campagne de candidature durant laquelle la qualité du dossier parisien aura été plus... More information...

Public opinion in Olympic cities : from bidding to retrospection / Harry H. Hiller, Richard A. Wanner

Hiller, Harry H. (1942-) | Wanner, Richard A.
2017
Whereas traditionally hosting the Olympics was viewed as a top-down decision with little public input, public opinion is becoming more important in assessing and evaluating the merits of hosting the Games. Using bid documents from... More information...
Failed Olympic bids and the transformation of urban space: lasting legacies? / Robert Oliver, John Lauermann

Oliver, Robert D | Lauermann, John

Palgrave. London - 2017

This book evaluates why cities choose to bid for the Olympics, why Olympic bids fail, and whether cities can benefit from failed bids. Attention is shifted away from host cities (or winners), to consider the impact of the bidding...

Event bidding: politics, persuasion and resistance / David McGillivray and Daniel Turner

McGillivray, David | Turner, Daniel

Routledge. London - 2017

Bidding contests for sporting and cultural events are attracting increasing media and public attention. Yet, despite the cost, size and scale of these bidding contests, relatively little academic attention has been paid to the str...

Examining positive outcomes of unsuccessful Olympic bids / Paul Salisbury, Becca Leopkey, Cem Tinaz

Salisbury, Paul | Leopkey, Becca | Tinaz, Cem

Coventry University. Great Britain - 2017

This report provides evidence of positive outcomes of unsuccessful bids for the Olympic and Paralympic Games. Current literature focuses heavily on the legacy from hosting sporting events, with little coverage of the impacts exper...
The IOC and Olympic bids from democracies and authoritarian regimes: a socioeconomic analysis and strategic insights / Thomas Könecke, Michiel de Nooij

Könecke, Thomas | Nooij, Michiel de

2017

This socio-economic study scrutinizes the bidding process for an Olympic Games in democratic countries and authoritarian states. More specifically, transaction cost economics is employed as a lens to analyse the bidding processes...

How to bid better for the Olympics: a participatory mega-event planning strategy for local legacies / Eva Kassens-Noor, John Lauermann

Kassens, Eva | Lauermann, John

2017

Several cities have canceled their Olympic bids in recent years because of local protests and referenda. Bidding cities now face a new political reality as they debate whether a bid is in the best interests of local stakeholders...

Jeux Olympiques: raviver la flamme / Jean-Loup Chappelet

Chappelet, Jean-Loup

PPUR. Lausanne - 2016

Pourquoi organiser des Jeux Olympiques au 21e siècle? De plus en plus d’élus et de citoyens se posent légitimement la question. Face à l’ampleur croissante des manifestations, que rien ne semble vouloir refreiner, les candidatures...

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Site</th>
<th>Classification</th>
<th>Call number</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>OSC Library</td>
<td>Libre-accès</td>
<td>MA 27820</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Agenda 2020 and the Olympic Movement / John J. MacAlloon

This paper examines the current Olympic bidding crisis and evaluates the accompanying Agenda 2020 reform process at the International Olympic Committee.

Why were voters against the 2022 Munich Winter Olympics in a referendum? / Dennis Coates, Pamela Wicker

In Munich, a referendum on a bid for the 2022 Winter Olympics was held in November 2013 and failed. This study analyzes the determinants of the percent of favorable votes using secondary data from all 52 communities involved in the...
Bidding for development: how the Olympic Bid process can accelerate transportation development / Ngiste Abebe... [et al.]

Abebe, Ngiste

Springer, New-York - 2013

Toronto’s Olympic ambitions: an investigation of the Olympic bidding legacy in one modern city / Robert D. Oliver

Oliver, Robert D

[s.n.]. Blacksburg - 2011

Toronto has failed to secure the right to host the Olympic Games on five different occasions (1960, 1964, 1976, 1996, 2008). This research expands the concept of Olympic legacy to include the bidding process and investigates w...

Olympic city bidding: an exegesis of power / Douglas Booth

Booth, Douglas

2011

This article analyses the bidding process to host the Olympics as a complex set of power relationships between the IOC and candidate cities.

The Olympic bidding process as a starting point of the legacy development / M.J. McIntosh

McIntosh, Martha

2003

This paper will focus on using primary information, such as that found in the bid cities documents and the IOC publications, in order to address a series of questions relating to the issue of legacy and the Olympic host city biddi...
The purpose of this study is to take the first steps towards shedding some greatly needed light onto the bid process. Although there have been many subtle refinements made to the bid process over the on hundred plus years of its e...