Administrative history / Biographical history

At the Executive Board meeting in Rome in May 1982, the decision was taken to use part of the reserve from the Los Angeles revenue to help the NOCs of developing countries with transport to the Games and to subsidise the costs of the village. Two months later, in July 1982, the working group on aid to NOCs for attending the Games was set up at the Executive Board meeting in Madrid.

The working group's first meeting was in Lausanne on 9 October 1982. Its main task was as follows:

- Establish the best way to share out the money available (especially from television rights) between the various NOCs.

The working group's activities came within the framework of those of the Olympic Solidarity Commission.

The working group last met on 28 May 1984 in Lausanne.

Immediate source of acquisition or transfer

The sub-series reached the IOC Historical Archives in 1993, after the new Olympic Museum was built in Ouchy.

Scope and content

The sub-series covers the meetings of the working group on aid to NOCs for attending the Games. It explains how the working group members were appointed, their discussions and their decisions with regard to their mission.

The files contain the meeting-related documents, i.e. minutes, roll calls, working documents and correspondence concerning the holding of the meetings.

The sub-series also includes copies of minutes kept for conservation purposes and copies of minutes for reproduction (complete collections).
