LONDON. E. C. 4.

19th December 1938.

Dear President,

On behalf of the City of London I extend to the International Olympic Committee a hearty invitation to hold the Olympic Games in London in 1944.

Should the International Olympic Committee see its way to award the Games of 1944 to London, it would give great pleasure to the citizens, and I feel sure that the Games would be organised in accordance with the highest traditions of the Olympic ideal.

Yours very truly,

Frank H. Rowater,

Lord Mayor.

Count de Baillet-Latour,
President,
